Two associates pass European patent attorney exams

Associates Sam Town and Stephen Scott have qualified as European Patent Attorneys after passing the European Qualifying Examinations.

Sam scored the highest marks awarded to any of the candidates taking paper A. He is now a fully qualified European and UK Patent Attorney. Stephen passed his one remaining exam to become fully European qualified, having qualified as a UK Patent Attorney in April 2013.

Partner Jerome Spaargaren said: "This is yet another outstanding success by our associates. Congratulations to both Sam and Stephen on an excellent set of results."
