

EIP

Poland's law on cheap drugs declared contrary to EU law

A Polish law which allowed the sale of unapproved drugs which were cheaper than those approved has been declared contrary to EU law.

The decision by the Court of Justice of the European Union is discussed by EIP's Darren Smyth in his latest IPKat post.